This is a sharp, concise and convincing analysis of the ruthless manipulation of the idea of citizenship by Africa’s rulers. Manby brilliantly exposes the large scale legalised discrimination and disenfranchisement which underlie many of today’s political conflicts in Africa. A must read for policymakers and any serious student of African politics.’

Tom Porteous, author of ‘Britain in Africa’

‘Bronwen Manby has done a tremendous service by writing the most comprehensive survey of citizenship in Africa… This book will be a critical resource to understanding future African debates around who belongs to the polity.’

Jeffrey Herbst, author of ‘States and Power in Africa’

You are invited to the launch of

Struggles for Citizenship in Africa

by Bronwen Manby

Chair and introduction:
Richard Dowden (Director of the Royal Africa Society)

Panel:
Bronwen Manby (Africa Governance Monitoring and Advocacy Project (AfriMAP) in the OSI)
Chidi Odinkalu (Open Society Justice Initiative)
Raufu Mustapha (University of Oxford)

Friday 9 October 5.30pm
The Brunei Gallery
School of Oriental and African Studies
University of London. Thornhaugh Street, Russell Square, London WC1H 0XG

For more information on Struggles for Citizenship in Africa, visit:
http://www.zedbooks.co.uk/struggles_for_citizenship_in_africa

This event is organized by

Royal African Society
Zed Books
Open Society Foundation